

Charles L. Daugherty

Counsel, Litigation Section Head

Charles L. Daugherty joined Ford + Bergner LLP in 2016, bringing with him an extensive background in real estate, construction, commercial and business litigation. For nearly fourteen years, Mr. Daugherty has successfully represented local and national clients in state courts, federal courts, appellate courts and arbitration proceedings. He has prosecuted and defended a wealth of litigation matters, including matters concerning general business disputes, partnership disputes, contract disputes, property tax matters, employment issues, insurance coverage disputes and bad faith claims, consumer transactions, mechanic's liens, construction defect claims, breach of fiduciary duty claims, termination of contract issues, Texas Deceptive Trade Practices-Consumer Protection Act violations, defamation and fraud matters.

In addition to the above, Mr. Daugherty has appeared in district courts in counties throughout Texas, including Harris, Montgomery, Fort Bend, Brazoria, Dallas, Bexar, Travis, Williamson and Brazos counties, among others. At Ford Bergner, LLP, Mr. Daugherty utilizes his extensive litigation background to effectively and efficiently handle the contested matters that arise in the context of probate.
